

NEW EYFON PROJECT 2021:

“YOUNG ARTISTS BETWEEN INNOVATION AND TRADITION”

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Europe is characterized by shared cultural and artistic achievements, especially in the fields of music, poetry and visual arts. These areas were barely visible in the last few months and could not be shown to the general public. Establishing identity through culture is, however, extremely for a Europe that is growing together.

The project “Young artists between innovation and tradition” aims to deal with Europe through a joint performance in and at the “ARC de l’Europe” set up in Neumarkt in Styria on the occasion of the celebration of the “Europe Prize” awarded to the community of Neumarkt by the Council of Europe which will take place on September 11th and 12th, 2021.

Projects can be submitted in the following categories:

- o Music, compositions, singing
- o Poetry, prose
- o Theatre, dance, flash mobs, sound instalation

A jury will select around 10 projects, which will be further developed in a workshop week from 6th to 10th September 2021 at the Europaburg castle in Neumarkt with the support of suitable teachers in order to effectively present the projects to the public.

The jury will be composed according to the categories of the submitted projects and will involve representatives from the following institutions:

- o Land Steiermark (Province of Styria)
- o University of Music and Performing Art, Graz
- o Music School, Murau (Styria)
- o Theaterholding Steiermark
- o Community of Neumarkt
- o EYFON
