The European Youth Forum Neumarkt wants to provide a significant input for the development of a common Europe. Especially young Europeans aged between 18 and 25 years are invited to develop their own ideas about Europe. There will be a focus on the European Year of Youth, Freedom in Peace and intercultural competences during this seminar week. Current challenges of Europe in general and of the European Union in particular should also be in the foreground this week. The EYFON team and external speakers from relevant institutions enter into discussion with the seminar participants and are available with their specialist knowledge. A selected leisure program will strengthen team building and ensure conviviality and relaxation.
